About Mahfoodha Saeed Alzayani

Mahfoodha Saeed Alzayani is considered a pioneer in the field of volunteer and humanitarian work, as her career extends for more than 70 years in serving the humanitarian field locally and in the Arab world. She dedicated her life to promoting the values of giving back and participated in establishing and implementing many projects targeting the groups most in need, such as children, women, and the elderly.

She also worked to spread awareness about important humanitarian issues by organizing workshops and educational events. Moreover, Mrs. Alzayani has contributed to establishing partnerships with local and international organizations, which led to expanding her impact. She also encouraged and supported young people to engage in volunteer work, which helped create a new generation of volunteers.

Mrs. Mahfoodha has received several local and Arab awards in recognition of her efforts.

Mrs. Mahfoodha remains an inspiration to others through her deep commitment to humanitarian work, making her a role model to look up to.

About Mahfoodha Alzayani Humanitarian Award

Mahfoodha Alzayani Humanitarian Award comes from the standpoint of the sustainability of humanitarian work in Arab societies, with a focus on the importance of community partnerships and supporting the ideas of our Bahraini youth. The award aims to promote projects and initiatives that are in the best interest of humanity, based on the distinguished career of Mrs. Mahfoodha Saeed Alzayani in volunteer and humanitarian work for more than seventy years.

The award seeks to provide full opportunities to serve the field of humanitarian and volunteer work, which is what His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa, is always keen on doing.

Vision

To be a leading platform that promotes humanitarian and volunteer work in Arab societies, by encouraging innovative ideas and sustainable initiatives that contribute to improving the quality of life and supporting the groups most in need.

Message

Mahfoodha Alzayani Award for Humanitarian Work seeks to provide opportunities for participants from all categories, to enhance the spirit of giving back and cooperation, and to motivate young people to engage in volunteer work. It aims to achieve a positive and sustainable impact on society by supporting projects that focus on human values and strengthening community partnerships.
